As a member of the NIRSA Foundation Board of Directors, you have assumed a major responsibility. Board members are in a position to directly affect long-range NIRSA Foundation goals and objectives and to make a significant contribution to the field of recreational sports.

You must be willing to support the NIRSA Mission Statement and abide by the NIRSA Code of Ethics. As a member of the board you are also expected to adhere to the NIRSA Foundation Board of Directors Code of Conduct. Specifically you must:

- Maintain confidentiality.
- Represent the collective interests of the NIRSA Foundation, the Association, and its members.
- Keep members informed of decisions in a timely fashion.
- Refrain from using the position for personal advantage.
- Never exercise authority as a board member outside the realm of the position.
- Approach NIRSA Foundation business with a fair-minded attitude.
- Maintain integrity to uphold the trust of the members.
- Support the efforts of the Executive Director and the NIRSA Headquarters staff.
- Make informed decisions for the advancement of the NIRSA Foundation.
