As a member of the NIRSA Services Corporation Board of Directors, you have assumed a major responsibility. Board members are in a position to directly affect long-range NIRSA Service Corporation (NSC) goals and objectives and to make a significant contribution to the field of recreational sports. You must be willing to support the NIRSA Services Corporation Board of Directors' Code of Conduct. Specifically you must:

- Maintain confidentiality.*
- Represent the collective interests of the NIRSA Service Corporation and its shareholder.
- Keep board members and shareholder informed of decisions in a timely fashion.
- Refrain from using the position for personal advantage.
- Never exercise authority as a board member outside the realm of the position.
- Approach NIRSA Services Corporation business with a fair-minded attitude.
- Maintain integrity to uphold the trust of the shareholder.
- Support the efforts of the NIRSA Headquarters staff.
- Make informed decisions for the advancement of the NIRSA Services Corporation.

*Confidentiality Policy

A board member of the NIRSA Services Corporation should not, in the regular course of business, disclose information about NIRSA's or NSC's legitimate activities unless it is already known by the public or is of public record. In the normal course of business, a board member of NIRSA Services Corporation should treat as confidential all matters involving NIRSA and NSC until there has been a general public disclosure or unless the information is a matter of public record or common knowledge. The individual board member is not a spokesperson for the NIRSA Services Corporation and, thus, disclosure to the public of corporate activities should be made only through the NIRSA Services Corporation's designated spokesperson. A presumption of confidential treatment should apply to all current information about legitimate board or corporate activities.
