

NIRSA Flag & Touch Football Rules Book & Officials' Manual Editorial Board Application

Application Deadline: January 17, 2017

The NIRSA Flag & Touch Football Rules Book & Officials' Manual was first published in 1983. Its purpose is to provide a standardized code of Rules, interpretations and officials' mechanics for the sport of flag and touch football. The sixteen editions (revised biannually) of the NIRSA Flag & Touch Football Rules Book & Officials' Manual have been used by thousands of colleges, universities, municipal recreation departments, high schools, correctional institutions, military installations and youth and adult programming organizations.

The NIRSA Flag Football Editorial Board has the capacity for 12 members, serving staggered two to four year terms. Nicole Green of The University of Michigan is the current Chair of the Editorial Board. The charges for the NIRSA FFB Editorial Board are to use the established processes to edit the rule book scheduled for publication in June of 2019.
